2. Nature of the service

Ayurnidaan provides Ayurvedic wellness guidance and facilitates consultations with registered practitioners. The application does not provide emergency medical care. In an emergency, contact local emergency services rather than using the application.

3. Your account

You are responsible for the accuracy of the information you provide, including date of birth, sex, height, weight and symptoms. Assessments and recommendations are generated from this information, so incorrect entries may reduce their usefulness.

Content in the application is educational and is not a substitute for an individual medical diagnosis or treatment plan. Consult a qualified practitioner before acting on guidance where you have a medical condition, take medication, are pregnant or have persistent symptoms.

5. Assessments and recommendations

Prakriti and Vikriti assessments, food plans, yoga plans and supplement suggestions use the answers you provide. Recommendations may use automated systems and should be treated as supportive wellness information, not as guaranteed outcomes.

6. Doctor consultations

Ayurnidaan helps you discover practitioners and book consultations. Practitioners are responsible for their independent professional judgement. You may share notes and reports before a consultation so the practitioner can review the context you choose to provide.
